She read the State Journal daily and did her word find books. She liked to go out to eat until her health got bad and it was harder to go. Rosene her Sunday school teacher taught me at PBC when I was young. Mama enjoyed her KY basketball games and if I did not know the day or time of the game I would call her if we would foget something from the past she was our computer. “ Very sad to hear of Maxine's passing. During my time at Providence, she was always a joy and one of those individuals that I always expected to see every Sunday and that I viewed as a strong foundation of our church. She will be missed and Butch and all the family will definitely be in our prayers in the days to come. God bless you guys, and thank God for the legacy of great ladies like Ms. Maxine.
