“ I am privileged to call Jim and Kathleen Judge my friends for some 50 years. Jim Judge was a man of integrity and an inspiration to me. We both worked for the Dept. of Education in the Bureau of Vocational-Technical Education and assisted other professionals in making Vo-Tech education in Kentucky one of the best in the nation. Jim and I were private pilots and on many occasions flew to meetings in other states while representing the Dept. Jim enjoyed his Ford vehicles. He home processed and produced those good country hams. Jim Judge, a man of integrity, and a man that I will sorely miss, but I have confidence that he has gone to a better place. Love to you, Kathleen and family. ----- Don R. Miller

“ Jim Judge was the epitome of a gentleman ... a Kentucky gentleman who loved his country, his family and abided by his faith. All those that were lucky enough to know this Christian were, are, and will always be guided by his example. My thoughts and prayers are with his family which he simply and utterly adored.

“ COL Judge always portrayed the calm and collected leader who never let emotion drive his decision process. He always took the time to offer mentoring advice and guidance to help junior officers improve their leadership skills. Leaders today would do well to emulate his leadership style and methods. He will be missed.

“ COL Judge was one of those leaders who was also a soldier at heart. When you think of people who can be counted on, his name comes to mind. He was part of a generation of solid leaders, always consistent, always leading by example. His presence and example will be missed by a great many former subordinates and admirers.

Jimmie was the agent who sold my wife & me our long-term care insurance years ago. Later I joined his agency & we both served this area. He was active in the Franklin County Retired Teachers Association and I became an associate member. Retired teachers are among the most insureds that we have. Carolyn & I were fond of Jimmie and we miss him.
