

Jimmie Lou Young

September 18, 1935 - June 19, 2025

Frankfort – Jimmie Lou Combs Young, 90, passed away on Thursday, June 19, 2025. Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 25, 2025, at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home with Rev. Marissa Carver officiating. Entombment will follow at Sunset Memorial Gardens. Visitation will be held from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 25, 2025, at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

Jimmie Lou Combs Young was born on September 18, 1935, in London, Kentucky to the late Benjamin Logan Combs and Mary Alice Hensley Combs. She retired after many years of service with Bluegrass Community Action Agency where she was employed as a teacher. Mrs. Young was a member of South Frankfort Presbyterian Church. She enjoyed traveling, cooking with her family, listening to country music in her kitchen, and teaching. She loved to laugh at her grandkids' stories and hated raking the leaves in her yard. Her family will always remember her as the strong, confident woman that she was. She is survived by one son, Timothy Lee Young; brother, Tony Combs; sisters, Phyllis and Betty Sue; six grandchildren, Lily Elizabeth Baker, Rachel Allison Young, Annabel Lee Young, EmmaLee Paige Wright, Ethan Alexander Young, and Mitchell Gregory Letulle; two great grandchildren, Cecil and Everett Wright; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, William Jennings Young; and son, William Thomas Young.

Serving as pallbearers will be her grandchildren.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ Jimmie Lou was already a beloved institution at South Frankfort Presbyterian Church when I arrived on the scene in 1976. I soon found out everyone took pride in the work of Mrs. Young and her daycare. Countless Frankfort children experienced her love and the talented staff she employed. Jimmie Lou also sung in the choir in those days. I loved her laugh and joyful ways. Always excusing herself so Jennings and Tommy and Timmy would have a meal on the table. She was a great friend too. Had a devoted following. In truth she wore her faith and expressed the love Jesus taught every day with everyone she met. Thank God for Jimmie Lou. And God bless her eternal memory.
