“joe was like my big brother in aa (even though i'm older). he just takes you under his wing and helps you to know that everything will be all right. i've repeated things he's told me to others. his advice was invaluable. one of my favorites is "if it ain't on fire or dying then don't worry about it". when joe talked everyone listened. my heart breaks for you becky and rest of family. grief is the hardest thing to go through. lean on God at this most difficult time. and just know that joe will be waiting for you when your own time comes. thoughts and prayers are with you and family.
