“ Johnny it was a honor knowing you. Anybody who took the time of day to speak to you, walked away a better person. Gonna miss talking to you, just hasn't felt the same on this street since you moved but now we can feel somethings missing... I'll always save a spot on my porch for you buddy! I wish I was a fly on the walls of heaven, bc I'd love to see you walking running and doing everything you couldn't down here. I know your at peace bc you finally got your momma back. Thank you for all you ever did, we love and miss you Johnny...

“ I never knew Johnny personally but heard alot about him from his aunt and my uncle , Louise and Arnold Keith. Louise and Arnold were always concerned about Johnny’s well being and tried to do what they could to help him. Every time they went to visit they came home with Johnny stories, often about him riding around on his lawnmower. Johnny was never able to walk but that didn’t stop him from getting around to places he wanted to go. I am thankful to Jeff Sutton for his unconditional love and support of Johnny. Louise was always concerned about Johnny after her sister Nancy passed away but at that time she wasn’t physically able to help. She would have been pleased to know that Johnny was well taken care of and that he was enjoying life despite his physical condition.

Johnny was my first cousin on his dad’s side of the family. We were together a lot when we were very young and he lived in Paris. Unfortunately, I haven’t seen Johnny in over fifty years and we lost touch when his father died. In recent years I tried getting in touch but to no avail. I did talk to Nancy once on the phone and at least found out how Johnny was doing. John Patrick Maher - R. I. P.
