“ Allen and samantha, i can not image what you are going through. I pray that God gives you comfort and peace. God had another plan for him that was more important than being on this earth. I know that doesnt make it easier. Prayers today and in the coming weeks.

“ I dont know you personally but I wanted to tell you how sorry I am for the loss of your precious angel. I can't imagine the pain and grief that you and your family are going through. There is a reason that God needed your special angel in his arms in his final resting place in Heaven. I know that doesn't make it any easier for you just know your precious baby will never have to suffer or hurt again. I will be praying for you and your family and may God wrap his arms around you during this difficult time.

*With love,
From a fellow Facebook member*

“ I am so very sorry for your loss of Jordan, losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things for us as humans to cope with. Especially when they're so young. My sincerest condolences are with you and your family. Something that I've found comfort from is found from the words recorded at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 which says, "Praised be the God of all comfort who comforts us during all our trials..." How reassuring it is to know that when we're undergoing trouble some times that we can turn to God in prayer and he will help us. For more comforting promises from the Bible check out jw.org
