Joe Paul was a special man from a special family. The Leone's lived in Bon Air Subdivision as their home was the site of many sandlot basketball games encouraged by his Dad, Dr. Joe Leone. They had an "open door" policy for all kids in the neighborhood to come over and play anytime!

Joe Paul was smart, kind, and had a gentle soul about him. He was an expert coin collector and was known nationally to rank coins of any kind to evaluate their condition and value.

He was also a CPA who worked in state government for many years.

I'm saddened to hear of the passing of this unique person who had an impact on my life.

Rest in Peace, Joe Paul.

Sincerely,
