“ *When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know.
Bear your sorrow in good deeds. Miss me, but let me go.*

We are so sorry for the loss of your Mom. If theres anything we can do just let us know. Keeping you all in our prayers. Dale & Rhonda

I haven't seen you in a long time but that doesn't mean I have forgotten you! I did get to meet one of your sisters at Old Stone Inn and she said you were doing well so take care of yourself and remember that people are thinking and praying for you during this time.*
