“ As I sit here still missing u loving u wanting and needing u on pretty much a daily basis . I talk to u all the time I pray that u will come to me to show me a sign to just let me feel your presence. But all I need to do is turn on the radio and I hear u talking . Music was always our thing . So many concerts and so many times we would talk about or listen to music all the new bands u turned me onto that most people I no don't jam to but we did . . I Denver the story that I told your buddy at work about . Your lil red head Lol not to mention all the other things that I won't mention . Lol there will never be another you . You will have a space in my heart and the only thing that will comfort me when my final day comes is knowing you my family and other friends I've lost will b there waiting but u better b the first face I see and the first ass I kick and the first lips I kiss .!! Rest easy my favorite person in life ! I loved u then I love u now and I'll die with u in my heart
