

KeAaron William Jones

September 4, 2010 - June 9, 2026

KeAaron William Jones, 15, of Frankfort, Kentucky, passed away peacefully on June 9, 2026, surrounded by love.

Visitation will be held Friday, June 19, 2026, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church, Midway, Kentucky, with funeral services immediately following at 12:00 PM. Interment will follow at Evergreen Memory Gardens, Lexington.

Born on September 4, 2010, in Frankfort, Kentucky, KeAaron was a beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin, teammate and friend whose life touched countless people. He was known for his kind heart, infectious smile, unwavering strength and ability to bring joy wherever he went.

KeAaron attended Franklin County High School, where he was an active and cherished member of the volleyball team, basketball team, choir and band. He loved sports, music, spending time with family and friends and making others laugh. He dreamed of becoming an architect and approached life with determination, optimism and faith.

In December 2025, KeAaron was diagnosed with Diffuse Midline Glioma, a rare and aggressive form of central nervous system cancer. Throughout his battle, he displayed extraordinary courage and resilience. From diagnosis until his final moments, KeAaron remained positive, hopeful and strong, inspiring everyone around him.

KeAaron was preceded in death by his father, Aaron William Jones. He leaves behind his loving mother, Keana Jones; Dad, Jordan Moore; siblings, Aaron William Jones Jr., Jori'Anna Moore, Jor'Riyah Moore and Jaa'Liyah Moore; grandparents; great-grandparents and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, teammates, classmates and dear friends.

Forever in our hearts. Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever missed. Forever a Flyer.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.
