

Kenneth F. Goins

April 18, 1946 - May 4, 2023

Kenneth F. Goins of Frankfort, age 77, passed away on May 4, 2023. Born in Frankfort on April 18, 1946, he was the son of the late Franklin and Evelyn Sluscher Goins. Kenneth is survived by his wife of 55 years in August, Carolyn Campbell Goins; sons, Brian C. Goins of Lexington and Keith M. Goins (Laura Leigh) of Frankfort; his loving grandchildren, Campbell Hayes Goins and Davis Watson Goins; his sister, Carol (Arnold) Wilson; sisters-in-law, Joan Goins and Prudence Campbell of Frankfort, and Mary Lynn Elbl of Cambria, California; and brother-in-law, Steven Campbell of Alpharetta, Georgia.

He was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Patsy Goins, brother, Edward F. Goins Jr, and brother-in-law, Dan Campbell.

An active member of Good Shepherd Catholic Church, Kenneth served the parish in many ways. He enjoyed his church family and his special friends that worshipped and shared his faith. He was a former Eucharistic minister, former president of the Parish Council, and a regular usher. Through his church, he was also involved in the Life in the Spirit, and Marriage Encounter seminars.

Some of his greatest joys in life were playing basketball and fishing with his grandchildren, surf fishing in the Gulf of Mexico, and vacationing with his family and wonderful friends. In his spare time, he enjoyed gardening and woodworking.

Kenneth served as president of Goins and Goins Insurance Agency from 1980 until 2019, owning Goins & Goins, Inc. with his father prior to that. In 1980, Kenneth and his brother Edward purchased the Hockensmith Insurance Agency. He was in the insurance business for almost half a century and enjoyed helping and advising his clients and many friends with their insurance needs. He never considered his job as work, but rather his calling in life.

Kenneth graduated from Frankfort High School and attended Eastern Kentucky University. He served his state and nation as a former member of the Kentucky National Guard, 138th Field Artillery Brigade in Lexington. He held a Kentucky real estate license and also held an auctioneer's license in the early 1980s. He gave of his time generously, serving as auctioneer for a number of charitable auctions for nonprofits in the community, including the Boy Scouts and Frankfort Jaycees. Kenneth was a youth sports coach, devoted husband, father, and grandfather, and a friend to everyone who knew him. He enjoyed his morning visits with his friends at McDonalds.

A longtime member of Big I Kentucky (Independent Insurance Agents of Kentucky), Kenneth held insurance licenses in both property and casualty, and life and health. He was a graduate of the Reich American School of Auctioneering in Mason, Iowa, and a former member of the Downtown Kiwanis Club, Frankfort Jaycees, and a former board member of the community's American Red Cross and the United Way of Franklin County.

Pall bearers will be Edwin A. Logan, David C. Bell, Craig B. Wiggins, Stephen M. Johnson, John B. Baughman, Phillip Kring, Joseph C. Bell, Will Renshaw, Steve Campbell, William R. McGee, and Cliff Elbl.

“ My fondest memories is attending school with him at FHS and eating lunch with him and his wife Carolyn at Two Sisters Cafe. He would have to speak to everyone in the restaurant. Both him and his wife were always kind enough to take time out to wish me a Merry Christmas! Prayers to family and friends as we mourn the loss of a good man. God bless,
