“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Kevin, I remember back in 1976 when our family moved to Broadview Manor, Ms. Hulette, Kevin, Clay, Dale and LeeAnn welcomed the family to the neighborhood. This family was the very first friends we had there, but that wasn't all they was to us, they was like a second family. I remember listening to them play their music, and could Kevin play the guitar, every kid in the neighborhood would come around and listen to them play. Now Kevin my friend, you will be playing and singing to our Lord Jesus Christ, you will be missed, I want to share my condolences to the family and prayers, May God bless you all in this time, Bobby Page, Cave City, KY

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Kevin. Where would i start with all of the memories of us growing up together. I have know the Hulette family since i was six years old. The wonderful times we would all have. The Hulette kids were wonderful friends to hang out with. The baseball, basketball and football games in our backyard at Broadview Manor with the Hulette boys were great. Kevin was a great artist and would always have sketches of his work to show me when we went to their house. Ms. Hulette was always gracious to open her house to all the neighborhood kids. She was so kind to all of us and it spilled over into each child. Kevin would always have a radio so we could all listen to music as we all hung out in the subdivision. I remember the long walks back on the dirt road they were building for the new subdivision in the back. I remember so vividly to this day when kevin had an 8 track of Fleetwood Mac. First time i ever heard them! The wonderful softball games and scouts. I could write a book about my memories with Kevin. He was quick as lightning with his karate moves. I sure will miss not seeing him around. Just a wonderful person. Rest in peace my friend. Time to make new friends and see old friends.

“ Kevin attended our church at First Church of the Nazarene. He was mostly quiet, especially when he started. But, as he began to feel more comfortable with the parishioners, he opened up. He especially enjoyed the music. Before long, he was raising his arms and shouting "Hallelujah!!"
