

Ladys Holbrook

March 3, 1924 - August 4, 2011

Frankfort " Graveside services for Ladys Montgomery Howard Holbrook, 87 yrs, wife of James "Carl" Holbrook of Frankfort, will be Wednesday, August 10, 2011, at 11:00 am at Kirby Flats Cemetery, Ashland KY, with Rev. Wallace Kent officiating. Visitation Tuesday from 4-8pm at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

Mrs. Holbrook passed away Thursday at Frankfort Regional Medical Center.

Ladys is survived by her husband, James "Carl" Holbrook; daughter, Mary Ann (Steven) Smith, Tybee Island, GA; four grandchildren; and three great grandchildren. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by daughter, Margaret Jean Leppert; three sisters; and four brothers.

Harrod Brothers Funeral Homes is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Ladys Holbrook

October 06, 2023 at 03:15 PM

“ Dear Carl and Family--From the first day Ladys called Byron "mean man" she brought so much joy to our boating days and lives. We just loved you both and the wonderful times we had at Dan's Marina and visiting you at your home in Florida. Words cannot express the sadness we are feeling on Ladys's passing. She taught me alot about life. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Carl...we also learned from you both "You be good to me and I'll be good to you!" But no one could out do you and Ladys. Sincerely, Neva Jo and Byron

Byron and Neva Jo Bell - August 12, 2011 at 01:18 AM

“ Our thoughts are with you at this time. We always thought Ladys was a classy lady and enjoyed the time we spent together at the dock. Come down and we will raise a glass for her.

Jo Ann and Gary Reynolds - August 10, 2011 at 03:57 PM

JW

“ Carl, please allow me to express my sincere condolences on your families recent loss. Ladys is someone I am very proud to have called my friend. As you know, I first met you and Ladys when I became a season ticket holder for UK Football games back in 1997. Our seats are decent I suppose, but because of the friendship I developed with you and Ladys I never requested an upgrade and still hold those same tickets to this date hoping to see you again. I truly miss seeing each of you at the games and sharing in the countless stories about each others families....oh how she loved her grandchildren. The memories we shared are plenty, from the big wins where we would stand in the aisles and dance a little jig to last second losses like the LSU "Bluegrass Miracle". Ladys will be missed. I hope that in some small way these words bring you some comfort at this sad time. May God's blessings and peace be with you and your wonderful family.

Jimmy Walker - August 09, 2011 at 01:21 AM

JJ

“ Carl, I am so sorry for your loss. I enjoyed working with Ladys and the times we spend on the boat. She taught me how to play Rookie and to perform my job duties to the best of my ability.

Jean Pettway-Unemployment Insurance - August 08, 2011 at 02:35 PM

LJ

“ Carl,

My deepest condolences to you and your family.

Lee Jackson - August 08, 2011 at 08:55 AM

ML

“ I am Ladys's youngest grandchild. (I called her 'Mawmaw') My grandmother was the most kind person I have ever known or could ever imagine. She never had anything bad to say about anyone. She cared for everyone, not just her family. Her wisdom, like her love, was also endless. At 87 years old, she was still just as mentally quick as she was in her 60's. Ladys had a general love for all people, and saw everyone with through empathetic eyes. She was always there for our family, and she always let us know how much she loved us. There will never be another lady like Ladys, my grandmother. I will never forget you, Mawmaw. I will love you always. To Pappaw (Carl): I am so proud of you for being so strong the last few years. Nobody could have taken care of Mawmaw better than you. You always showed your love for her in words and in actions. Anyone who has seen you two together, has told me that you are the best husband that anyone could have. I know that Mawmaw loved you more than anyone, and I know that she appreciated every minute that you spent with her. Blood related or not, You are the greatest man I have ever personally known, and I plan to make my marriage as successful as yours and mawmaw's. You are my papaw forever and I love you so much.

Matthew Leppert - August 07, 2011 at 08:50 PM

JM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I can understand how you feel, Carl. It can become very lonely but you can't wish them back the way they were. But you can remember all the good times before she got sick. It really will get easier to accept and to remember where they are today as time goes by. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

JUDY (Manley) McCord - August 07, 2011 at 08:12 PM