“ There is so much that i can say about you Larry you made my life very complete, not too many little girls can grow up and say they have two great fathers, but i had that luxury. We have always been a close family and you always made sure that we were. Now we are even closer and stronger, and we do it for you. We lived for your while you were here and we will live for you even stronger while you are gone. We are taking good care of Maggie May, she has been fed and watered everyday.

To mom You are my rock and my best friend. We will survive this Dempsey girls don't know how to fail. It will be hard at times, but you have the strongest family support system. We love you mom so much. God never gives you anything that you cant handle.

To Crystal-Being sisters is the strongest bond that two girls can have, and we have something that no one can ever take a way from us, we have each other. I love you so much.

To Dwayne: You are the biggest and most stubborn brother. I see so much of larry in you, and those are the qualities that make you the great man that you are today. You are just like him. DONT ever change that. You live your life every day to make other people smile, you never give up. I love you!!

“ I remember alot of good times with my Dad. One time that stands out the most, is the time we went fishing and he caught the boat anchor. I also remember his way of fixing things. You could not help but laugh. I loved my Dad. He was a great man. He taught me alot of things. He will greatly missed. Zackery was so used to him and Nana coming to his football games and basketball. I had to work almost all of Zacks basketball games. Dad always took him. He loved his grand kids. I am really goina miss him paging me about 10 times a day. Today at work I keep waiting for the phone to beep. It has been hard. I know one day I will see him again.

To Crystal,

You have always had a kind and giving heart. We have cried together and laughed together. You will always be my little sister even though your older than me-----

To Amy,

You have been there for me when I needed you. We fought together and partied together. I love both of ya Your older than me too.

To Mom,

Thank you for being my mom. Without you I would have not been the man I am today. I will always be there for you. I love ya

“ My fondest memories of my father are the times when he and mom would come and watch the kids ballgames or when they came up to visit us. Dad and Brett would pick at each other and dad would tell Brett that it only takes one finger and papaw can get you, that would crack Brett up and they would joke around. Dad would tell Kennedy how much he loved her and his nickname for her was Nenedi. He and my husband Ken would tease each other, and my husband would tell him that he would trade pink slips and take the truck and he could keep the payments. Dad always had that loving and caring heart that nobody stood in the way of his family. He would always tell me I was daddy's little girl and that he loved me very much. MY DAD WILL BE MISSED SO MUCH!

TO MY MOM, WHO I LOVE DEARLY I AM SO GLAD GOD GAVE ME A MOM LIKE YOU AND A NANA FOR MY KIDS. IF YOU NEED ANYTHING AT ALL YOU KNOW WHERE WE ARE JUST CALL. YOU ARE THE BEST MOM ANYBODY COULD EVER HAVE. KEN, BRETT, KENNEDI AND I LOVE YOU SO MUCH THAT WE ARE SO GLAD YOU ARE OUR MOM AND NANA. :)
