“ Larry was one of the absolute best souls that touched our lives. I think a back to when he worked at the old Kocolene Station on North Broadway. He was always fun and tolerate of how crazy Lynn and I were. He touched our lives in a positive way. May all the wonderful memories sustain the entire family and his friends. Nothing but the best thoughts of him. Rest in Peace until we all meet again. Lynn and Kathy Jones

“ We are so sorry for the loss of your husband, dad and granddad. We shared many good memories of Larry at family gatherings, ballgames and stories of him and Don in younger years and while serving in the Army reserves together. He was so proud of his kids and grandkids, he'll surely be missed. May he now rest in Gods eternal peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you, we hold a special place in our hearts for our family at this most difficult time. We love you, Don and Sharon Hawkins
