“ Larry, I went to school with you and graduated with you in 1977 but, until a few years ago we didn't hang around each other to much. I wish that I knew you more when we went to school. Since I meet you with Sherry and remembered who you where our friendship seemed to grow and you were a very special person and you will be missed so much it is hard to put in words. Sherry loved you so much and she will miss you very much. Larry we will watch out for her. I know that you would want it that way. There's a reason we don't know why but, only one person can answer that.
