“ I was terribly sorry I didn't get to attend the visitation or funeral. Lena was always so kind and caring. She admired our son (Mike Orem) very much and told Ed and I many times how she felt about him. Do not greive for her but rather for youtselfes and your loss, for she is now in God's loving care and will not suffer anymore. God be with you in the following days.

“ Larry I'm sorry for the loss of your mom. I never met her, but can see through you that she was a special person. Times like this words can't explain, but hopefully will bring you some comfort in knowing that you have friends thinking about you and you family. Having recently lost a parent I know the pain, but I try to look at the joys they brought to me. May God be with you and your family.

“ We are deeply saddened by your loss. When we lose someone we love, it seems time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that a loved one died, but that they lived. And that their life has given us memories too beautiful to forget, to live in hearts left behind. With our sincere sympathy, Ken and Denise Orem Deacon, Nicole Young, Logan, Nichole and Logan Jr. Young

“ It is my good fortune to be a part of this family, and have been for the past 36 years. I have sweet memories of Lena, things like eating at her table (oh could she cook), sharing holiday family time and watching her face light up with a smile (especially when the grandkids and great-grandkids were around). "Because two people fell in love" (Lena & Buck) I have the wonderful blessing of a husband whom I dearly love...now and forever. Lena, you will forever live in our hearts.

“ Dear Heavenly Father,
Thank you Lord for this wonderful family. Caress them with Your love during this time of sorrow. Be with them as they share time together and then continue on with their earthly lives. Love them extra special, Lord, as they say goodbye to Lena and You say "Welcome Home My Child." In Jesus name we pray, Amen.

*We love you Nancy Orem!

“ Dear Family and Friends, Mama was surrounded by family members at the time of her passing. She left this earth peacefully and without pain knowing that we all love her and will miss her. I take comfort in knowing that Mama has gone to be reunited with Daddy, Kathy Lynn and so many other members of our family and many friends. Most importantly she has gone home to our Lord to prepare a place for us. My Mama is at peace now. Peace and Love to you, Nancy

“ Donnie and I are very sorry to hear of your loss. Lena had been a part of our lives over the last several years. Lena lived at Kings Daughters Apartments at the same time Shannon's mother, Elisabeth Hawkins (Memaw), was a resident. The Jump family saw and spoke with Lena almost every time we visited Memaw. We will keep you in our prayers and thoughts. May God give you strength during your time of sorrow.
