June 2, 1947 - November 13, 2007

Lena Depp

Frankfort- Lena Mae (Harrod) Depp, 60, Frankfort, Kentucky, passed away Nov. 13, 2007 at home after a brave struggle with cancer. Born in Frankfort, KY to Clarence Coleman and Gladys Mae Harrod, she graduated from Franklin County High School and attended Kentucky State University. She was the Owner and Operator of Lena's Card & Gift Shoppe in Frankfort for the last twenty years. Previously she had worked as Administrative Secretary for the Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers and Kentucky Consulting Engineers Council in Frankfort for approximately twenty years. She was a member of the Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church.

Lena was a loving wife, step-mother and grandmother, as well as a true and loyal friend. She would want this time to be remembered as a celebration of her life, a remembrance of so much love and laughter that she shared with all her family, friends, and other special people. Her exuberant personality surrounded all of us with her precious spirit. She will be dearly missed and never forgotten.

She is survived by her husband of twenty-two years, Larry Depp Jr., formerly of Owensboro, KY; three step-children: Dana Faulkner and husband Bill, and children Amanda and Weston, of Louisville; David Depp of Lexington; Dianne Harris and daughter Taylor, of Alpharetta, GA; and two nephews: Clarence Thomas Harrod Jr., wife Kathy and children Thomas, Danielle and Jack Taylor; Mike Harrod, wife Cindy and son Chris Collins, daughter Haley; and a niece Donna Sharp. She was preceded in death by her parents Clarence Coleman and Gladys Mae Harrod and her brother Clarence Thomas Harrod and his wife Barbara.

Honorary bearers will be Robin Hearn, Shirley Rogers, Fran Hawkins, Janice Williams and Marilyn Soyars.

Visitation from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., Friday, November 16, 2007 at Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church, Frankfort. Funeral service at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, November 17, 2007 at Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church, followed by the committal service at Sunset Memorial Gardens.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial donations to Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church, 495 Duckers Rd., Midway, Ky 40347 and /or Hospice of the Bluegrass/Frankfort Office, 208 Steele St., Frankfort, Ky 40601.

Online condolences may be shared via the online guest book at [www.harrodbr othersfuneralhome.com](http://www.harrodbr othersfuneralhome.com).

Arrangements are under the careful direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ Larry: As I am in Alabama, and will not have an opportunity to visit, I wish to send this message in memory of Lena. I have had the opportunity on several occasions to be in her company with you at various functions. I remember her to be extremely delightful. You made such a great and happy couple. Noticing in the obituary that I am about her age, and that she graduated from FCHS, (me, the class of '64) I must have known her in passing. Who could miss her! I'm sure you will take comfort in your many fond memories of her and through the support of your many, many friends. God Bless and take good care. John Games

“ Larry:

Frances and I were so sorry to learn of Lena's passing. This gives opportunity to recall what a lovely lady Lena was and the great contribution she made to the Engineering Profession. During my years of leadership in KSPE and NSPE, she was always most pleasant and efficient in her service to the Society. We will miss her pleasant smile, her wealth of knowledge and her charm in performing her professional duties while serving in the Frankfort office.

We didn't see her much in recent years but know that she had a successful business career and you had a wonderful married life.

Frances joins in sending our prayers and best wishes to you and the family during this period of sadness.

“ Larry,
So sorry to hear about Lena. Unfortunately I did not know about it until after the funeral. I do not read my email daily and therefore missed the notification. Having been through this, the loss of your partner is a different lifestyle.

If you are in Lexington please give me a call and maybe we could have lunch.

Russ Reynolds also did not know about Lena as he was in the hospital with a broken hip. I have provided him information from the online website.

“ I will always remember Lena as a dear confidante. I visited the shop initially as a customer, but quickly my visits were to see and talk with her. I treasure those memories and relive them in my heart, and I thank God for the privilege of her friendship. My life is richer for having had her in it.

“ I met Lena in the early 70's during league bowling. I was in awe of her beauty and grace. A year later we bowled on the same team and I came to call her friend, sharing laughs and life stories and a few dinners together. I had a baby, she divorced and we lost touch. Then I met her at the grocery and she was glowing. We pulled our carts to the side and she told me of meeting you, how you spent New Year's and how happy she was. And I was happy for her - she deserved the life and love and family you gave her. She was a special LADY and so much fun. My heart goes out to all of you.

“ I am saddened by Lena's passing. I know there has been an emptiness in our community , especially at holiday time. Lena's shop and she herself brought so much joy to all who entered. She treated us all just like we were her very best friends, I wish I could be more like her. Lena was like an angel, she touched our lives and we never knew how much, until she wasn't there any more. Blessed be “ Larry I am sorry we never got the chance to meet. I am Lena's cousin and now live in North Carolina. Her dad and my mother were brother and sister. I am glad I had the chance to see her the last time I was in Frankfort. I am truly sorry I cannot attend. We will be praying for you and the family. If you would send me a phone number I would like to speak with you sometime.

“ Old friend Larry,
We were greatly sorrowed to learn of your wife Lena's passing. Although we failed to see you in Frankfort since our brief return to KY, we were unable to enjoy the pleasure of meeting you and her as we had intended. Cancer is a brutal beast that has struck so many of us. We join your prayers that one day soon it will be conquered so that others will not suffer this pain of the loss of a loved one.
