“ Although I have only known Butch since November of 2018 when my husband, Rocky and I began attending Mount Carmel Baptist Church, Butch was always kind, friendly and very welcoming to us. I know him well enough to know that he was a good man and that he loved and served the Lord. I know in my heart that his soul is now safe in the arms of Jesus. God Bless all his family and friends as they adjust to Butch not being with them. May they take comfort that he has gone home where they will all meet again by and by.

Butch was just a great, kind and generous man who tried to help anyone. A heart of gold now walking the streets of glory. Prayers for the family.
