

Lewis Jenkins Jr.

November 6, 1937 - December 3, 2020

Lewis Jenkins Jr. was born in Lincoln County, Kentucky, on Nov. 6, 1937, and raised in Bald Knob the son of Louis and Mary Jenkins. He attended Bald Knob School and later attended Kentucky State University.

He married Shirley Wood and they had two children, Doug (Anne) Jenkins and Rita Rector-Haynes (Greg). In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by Minnie Jenkins Triplet, Kenneth Ray, Albert Ray, Earl Jenkins, and Rosco Jenkins.

He was a Tool & Die Supervisor at Central Screw for twenty-five years and later Supervised at Trigg, Inc. for fifteen years. Lewis attended Thornhill Baptist Church from 1961 to 2011 and was a Deacon and taught the men's Steadfast Sunday School Class. He was a faithful member of Forks of Elkhorn where he was loved by many for his kindness and his fun sense of humor.

Mr. Jenkins is survived by his loving wife, Shirley; his two children; one sister, Alfa Sharp; four nieces; three grandchildren, Heather Rector Sanderson (Jason), Michael Lewis Jenkins and Mathew Allen Jenkins. He also had three precious great-grand-daughters, Alba, Maylin and Vada Sanderson.

Later in life he enjoyed traveling to Florida with Shirley and playing shuffleboard. Locally, for enjoyment he played golf and fished with his close friends.

Private services for Mr. Jenkins will be held. Live Streaming will be available on Monday, December 7, 2020, after 10:00 a.m. via <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC3Tu6xc7pPEA72hRG8Mmlow>

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ I extend my sincere condolences to the Jenkins family and friends for the loss of this truly good man. I will miss his cheerful nature, warm smile and firm handshakes but will never forget him. He not only “talked the talk” but as a genuine Christian, Lewis “walked the walk”.
