Lincoln was born June 25, 1991, to Robert Lyter Hutcherson, Jr. and Susan Gayle Martin Hutcherson. Lincoln was a gardener with an amazing “green thumb” – he could grow anything he set his mind to. He was an avid outdoorsman who loved 4-wheeling and also enjoyed gaming. Lincoln was a member of Memorial Baptist Church.

A young man with a loving heart, Lincoln is survived by his parents, Bobby and Susan; paternal grandmother, Gladys Hutcherson; maternal grandmother, Sarah Edith Martin; aunts and uncles, Peggy Jump, Kyle Hutcherson (Molly), Bev Martin (Chris), Sheila Ashley (Michael); and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Robert L. Hutcherson, Sr.; maternal grandfather, Jesse M. Martin; and maternal aunt, Bobbie K. Martin.

Pallbearers will be Dylan Ashley, Michael Ashley, Kyle Hutcherson, Eddie Gregory, Larry Mayes, Antonio Chevez and Chris Dempsey. Honorary bearers are Bev Martin, Jim Ashcraft, Johnny Jordan, Glenn Dempsey and Angie Pickett.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy in Lincoln's memory are suggested to the American Heart Association.

“ Lincoln Robert Hutcherson

“ I can only offer my belated condolences. I first met Bobby Hutcherson in art class at FCHS. Bobby was a year older than me. I was a freshman. It was a crazy time. The last time i saw him I was 19 and working a summer at Lowe's Lumber. I was backing up the delivery pickup holding the door open to see where I was going and smacked the door into a stack of wood. Bobby made a comment about me doing a number on that door but i drove the truck home and my dad beat the dent out and I never got in trouble for it. I remember Bobby like it was yesterday. I am sorry he suffered this terrible loss.
