“ We read of the passing of Linda this morning in the Lex. Herald and wish to express our sympathy to each of you. It is with a heavy heart that I write this note, because I regret not following up on my thought to call Linda last week to catch up on the news of the family. It was something we started after she became so busy with JT and Kenzie's activities, as well as dealing with her health issues, as I was dealing with grandchildren activities and my health issues. I know that God will provide the strength and grace each of you needs to deal with this sorrow. I know it seems as if the light of your life has dimmed a great deal or even gone out, but you will come to recognize that your Mom, Grandmother, Mother-in-law will remain in your hearts forever because of all the fond memories you have. It was a shock to read of the loss of a woman who I grew to admire so much since God blessed my life to bring us together after a glancing knowledge of each other in high school. From co-workers grew a friendship where we shared so much laughter, sorrow, and insight to help each other with being a Mom and Grandmother or Nana. I always admired Linda's dedication to her family as a single parent in later years. She stayed so busy with JT and Kenzie's activities, it was like Buddy and Sonja growing up again. She loved it! If there is anything that Sam or I can do for any of you at this time, please call us. We pray for each of you and will see you Sunday afternoon.
