“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Just take it one minute at a time. I know, I lost my daughter in May! I met you last month at the TCF meeting, they and Hospice have saved my life and well being, if you ever need to talk, e-mail me and I will give you my phone number. Take care! GOD BLESS YOU & YOUR FAMILY!

“ Mr. and Mrs. Harp, Jennifer, and Jamie,

I want you all to know that you are my family. I did, do, and always will love Lindsey with all my heart. There are no words that can describe the pain we now suffer. However, we will be with Lindsey again and share in the divine joy which she now has once we complete the work God has placed on Earth to do.

Mr. Harp,

You have been such a positive influence for me. To see you interact with your wife and daughters has taught me what it means to be a man. I will make you proud as I continue on in Lindsey's honor.

Mrs. Harp,

*The virtue and integrity of your daughters is testament to your loving nature as a mother. I cherish the bond that we now share. You've raised three incredible daughters, you now get to begin with a son.
Luke 6:21*

Jennifer and Greg,

You guys have lifted me up through this tragedy. Better days are ahead as your family will surely grow. I can't wait for you to return to KY. I will return as well and look forward to many years ahead with my new brother and sister to lean on.

Jamie,

I'm proud to tell everyone that asks that my hero is my 16 year-old sister. Your potential is immeasurable. I will always be there for you and will help move every mountain and fill every valley for you as you build your life to suit your dreams.

Lindsey,

I'm sorry.

I miss you.

I love you.

*I will see you soon.
Love, Kevin*

“ Cheryl and Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when I came to work at KHC that Jamie was in elementary school and Lindsey was in high school. She was a smart and beautiful young woman that will be missed very much by all that knew her. You and your family are in my prayers. May God be with you during this difficult time.

“ I am so very sorry to hear about your loss. Lindsey was always so fun to play in high school matches with. She was such a pretty and sweet girl who had a smile that could light up a room. I can't imagine the pain each of you are going through. Jennifer and Jamie- I know how close you all were. There was no sisterly bond like the one you all shared. You are in my prayers...

“ I cannot understand how something like this has happened to such a special girl and to a special family.

I can remember Friday and Saturday nights when we were very young, babysitting the Patrick's and how excited I'd be when I'd get the call from Lindsey or Jennifer saying that they were babysitting Jamie that night too. I'd pack up the kids and race down the hill. We would watch movies and eat popcorn or just do some girl talk while the little ones played. I can still remember how much fun we had and how I'd stretch back bed time a little each night not only to make the kids happy, but so that I could have a little more time with my friends before having to go back and put them in bed.

Then I was lucky enough to reconnect with both Lindsey and Jennifer later when we all went on to college. I got to spend a year at Georgetown with Lindsey and a year at Western with Jennifer. This of course meant even later nights when I didn't really want to leave because we were having so much fun!

Rick and Cheryl, you have three wonderful girls, who come from wonderful parents. We are all going to miss Lindsey but she will always be with us in our hearts.

Kevin, I am so sorry for your loss. She was a very special girl and I know that you must be special too.

My thoughts, prayers and deepest sympathy are with you all.

“ Harp family, I am so sorry for you loss. Lindsey was a warm caring young woman. She was a very happy person and I enjoyed being around her. I worked with her at PAA while she was in nursing school. She always made us laugh at PAA and laughed along with us. She seemed to be destined to take care of others as she was very good with all our young patients at work. You raised a wonderful daughter and it was clear family was very important to her. She always lit up when she talked about her sisters and parents. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. I am honored to have had the opportunity to work with and know her. Sincerely, Susan Yates
