“ Lisa was one of the nicest, caring people I think I have ever known. She was bright and cheerful and positive. We did have one thing in common, we both had the same birthday but one year apart, and we discovered that while at Elkhorn Jr, High back in the day when I went to look at a car her dad had for sale. She called me trouble but always with a laugh when she see me out and about. Having the honor of calling her a friend was a great pleasure.

Adriel I pray that you find comfort knowing that she is well cared for and her journey here may have seemed short, but her greatest journey has just started. God be with you and your children.

“ Michael and I are so sad that Lisa has left us. Such a genuine, sweet soul. I remember well the night we met ... Derby Eve at the COCO fundraiser at the CPH. Looking like a million dollars and beaming from ear to ear ... ready to get involved and do what she could so that others wouldn't have to go through what she was going through. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Adriel and with the rest of her family too. We will miss her, but her inspiration will continue to guide us.
