“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Such a shock. Lisa was always smiling, always glad to see you and always willing to help you do anything. She was a true genuine person full of love! Our friend Barbara Berry worked with Lisa at the Attorney General's office, my sister Jackie Triplett Owens worked in several offices that worked with Lisa on many projects. She was so very proud of you Lauren. She was always bragging. We saw her a few months ago and let us know about her perfect grandson Carter. Her smile and laughter will be missed. Heaven gained an angel. We will keep you all in our prayers.

“ I still cannot believe the loss of Lisa. My prayers are with all of her family and close friends. I worked with her in the Attorney General's Office and would run into her some after we retired. She always had something nice to say and a big smile on her face. I will not be able to attend her service as I have to work but my prayers will be with all of you and wishing I was there. She will be missed by many.
