“ Jennifer, My mom so loved your mother. They shared many memories from their jobs at the correctional facility and their personal lives. Mom is not well herself at this time or I'm sure she would be sending you a card. Know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

“ The Narramore family were an integral part of my growing up in Wheaton Hollow in Jenkins. Little girls playing board games and cards to singing in the choir at First Baptist Church with Margaret as our leader. My mother taught Helen how to drive in the 50's. As I remember it took her 3 times to pass the test. Of course she laughed about it as she did everything. I remember Lois as a quiet, sweet and kind friend who didn't need the spotlight to let her light shine. I'm so happy I ran into Lana at the Mall a couple months ago and was able to spend a few minutes visiting with Lois out in the parking lot. We were suddenly little girls in Jenkins if only for a brief time. You were blessed to have had Lois for a mother and the Narramores for family. Love and Prayers, Linda Webb Back (Winkie).

“ I went through school with Lois and graduated in 64 with her. She was very popular because she always had a smile and was always friendly to all. She was a beautiful person and would help anyone, but that smile was always great to see. So sorry for your loss, but heaven has gained a wonderful angel.
