“ I just now found this and some have a way of not informing the others that a place exist for you to do something like this and I know 1.

Lori I can still remember all the rides we took together from Lexington too here and over to your Mother and Fathers.I wont ever forget you and you will always remain in my heart for being the person you were and having such a family as you had.I know that I am blamed by Dee for what happened to Dereik,but he needs to look towards Richard and Kenny foor that since I had no idea of what was happening iin his life until Richard broke it out 1 evening before we went deer hunting here,then I knew.I wish I hadn't of found out and it would have savedalot of grief that's been with me since his death and he knows it wasn't me,he jst wanted a scape goat as always and me I was always the convient 1 too place the blame on..

*Tammy Elizabeth I would love to talk with you some time but I don't see it ever happening..I don't like the ay Dee handled the funeral and I don't think she wanted to go this way.I know you all would have wanted to have seen her at least 1 more time before she left for good and she would have wanted it that way I do believe.
Lori I love ya and will always think of you..*
