“ Often in past years I called at AShwood and she always greted me so warmly. I loved her. She made such a wonderful adjustmennt to her AShwood home and everyone will miss her. But she knew she had a more happy home awaiting her with one she loved better longer than anyone she ever knew.She knew that one day you would join her there

You are both very dear to me and I can never forget your place in my life. With deepest symppathy and undying love for bot. h Libby and Joe.John Chenault jault3@aol.com

“ Dear McManis Family,

Louise was a good friend to my late mother, Eloise Lewis and they had some great card games at Ashwood. I will always remember her friendly and caring attitude. Now Mom has a bridge buddy in heaven.
