“ Aunt Lura was Very Special To Me. She always called me Sissy. She made me feel special especially when she would allow me in the bookcase to look at the Dr Seuss books. I'll never forget how she wore an apron, and when leaving the house she would have on her head scarf and lipstick. I didn't visit her as often as I should have, but she was in my thoughts and prayers a lot. I Loved her so much!

“ Aunt Laura was a loving and caring person. There was never a better sister than she was to my Dad, Charles. My best memories of her and Uncle James was going there and helping her cook and playing in their camper. She was a wonderful christian and loved God deeply. She will be missed. Love, Charlotte Dale Hockensmith
