“ Carol, Johnny, Debbie, Jason Cassy, Mr. Carrier, I'm sorry to see about Mrs. Carrier passing and pray you all find peace in the coming days. I know the difficulty you are facing at this time. It's always said that knowing a loved one is not suffering is comfort enough to start healing and remembering what that loved one meant to us while they were here. I pray that each day forward is lived in her remembrance first and foremost. She did a great job in caring for each of you with love and respect everyday she was here.

God comfort and bless each of you

Timmy.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Aunt Mable's passing. I am unable to attend the service but wanted to let Uncle "Zip" and my cousins know that they are in my thoughts and prayers. May God keep you in his loving embrace and give you comfort and peace in knowing that some day you will see her again. Sending all our love, from our family to yours.

“ To Aunt Mable's Family-- I am so sad that we have lost yet another member of our family. We have had so much loss in the last year but what a joy it must be for her to be reunited with Grandma, Pap, Uncle Check, Uncle Buck, Uncle Buddy, Uncle Bo & all the other family members who have gone on. Mable was a sweet and wonderful person & I know she loved her family. Mom & Dad are grateful to have spent some of her last time with her in Florida. My thoughts are with you all & even though we are all scattered and don't talk often- we are still family and love each other.
