September 17, 1925 - January 16, 2016

Maggie Elizabeth Scott, age 90, of Frankfort, passed away Saturday morning, January 16, 2016, at Golden Living Center-Frankfort.

Maggie was born on September 17, 1925, to the late Charles W. Childs and Elizabeth B Childs Graham. She was preceded in death by her son, Lawrence Clark; brother, Charles R. Childs; one grandson, Lawrence Childs; former husband, Robert Clark; and was the widow of John Scott.

She is survived by one daughter, Roberta Penny; sister, Clara Drake; niece, Camille Chappell; nephews, Cecil and Maurice Drake of Ohio; four grandchildren, nine great grandchildren; loving daughter-in-law, Darletha Clark; and a host of cousins.

Maggie was a graduate of Mayo-Underwood High School. She went back to college and received her degree from Kentucky State University in 2002. Maggie retired from the Treasury Department, Commonwealth of Kentucky after 30 years of service.

Praising the Lord with her beautiful voice was her pride and joy and she shared her gift at church, funerals and social gatherings. Maggie loved to read, listen to gospel music, walk and enjoy the beauty of the four seasons of nature in Kentucky. Maggie will be remembered for her kindness, grace and love for everyone. She was always smiling and full of joy when greeting children, family and friends in the community.

Funeral services for Maggie will be 10:00 a.m. Saturday, January 30, 2016, at First Baptist Church, Clinton Street with Pastor Robert Earl Houston, Sr. officiating.

At her request, cremation was chosen and no visitation will be observed.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.
