“ Mama Sue i still dont know how to feel. You were VERY SPECIAL to more people than you probably realized. You touch people by your voice, touch, kindness and just by your smile. You made this world a little happier by just being yourself. I always enjoyed your Christmas eve gathering. I miss seeing you and your smile

“ I will miss our times when we would go out for a meal, shopping, or whatever other things we happen to do out. You were the Mother-In-Law that many husbands could only have wished they had, and you were truly one of a kind.

Rest In Peace. Heaven has gained another Angel now, but I believe Suzanne and I will be seeing you a little bit later on.

I love you Mama Sue!!!!

I will always remember the time you were trying to find where I lived and wound up way off target. You always said you couldn't find your way out of a paper bag. But I know you had no trouble finding Heaven. Now you have to worry about being off target. RIP my dear, dear friend. We had a lot of good times.
