“ I have only known Marianne Saaid for two years, and I so wish it could have been longer. I'll remember the times we spent visiting and sharing thoughts on our gardening as well as anything else that came up. She was a superb conversationalist and she always had a humorous comment for any situation. She was very gracious, above all. She could converse on many subjects because she had many interests despite the somewhat frail health she had been in for many years. I shall always treasure her friendship and thoughtfulness.
