“ Trisha,
So sorry to hear about your mom. I just ran into her at Cliffside in Nov and got to talk with her a few minutes. She was as lively and fun as ever. I am very thankful that I got to talk with her again and reminisce a little that day. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Aunt Marilyn was a sweetheart. I always enjoyed her bubbly, happy attitude when she came to the house to visit. We have not seen each other in years but I have always thought of her often. Whenever I ran into Uncle Revel and asked about Aunt Marilyn, he would laugh and say - she burned the road up going to Bowling Green to be with Trish and the grandbaby. She loved her family so much. I love that beautiful smile. Trish, I pray that the Lord provide you with comfort. It was a glorious reunion in heaven when she arrived.

“ I met Marilyn only a couple of years ago through Trish. She was one of the funniest and liveliest people. We shared a couple war (health) stories in common and I feel blessed that I got to spend a few days of quality time with her not too long ago.

I will miss our chats greatly. Truly a witty and beautiful person.

My heart is with all of her family and friends.
