“ Thank you for calling my office and notifying me of Mrs. Gordon's death. I have seen her as a patient since 1995. I discovered early on we shared a passion for Jane Austen, The Vicar of Dibley, and all things British. How I wished we could have shared more time together outside the office. I envied her trip to England--all by herself--and still have the postcard she sent me from Jane Austen's village! I shall miss her greatly. In my mind she will always be an extraordinary woman.
