“ I will love and miss my Aunt Margie forever. She was always there for me especially since I lost my Mom, her sister, Zelma. I knew there would always be a kind and sympathetic ear on the end of the phone when I called. We send our deepest sympathy to all her family. Rest in Peace my dear Aunt Margie and tell Mom, Nanny & Daddy Bill I said "Hi".

“ Marge and I worked (along w/ Doris J) at the Department of Libraries. She was such a sweet, fun loving co-worker. Another co-worker and I were just talking about Marge last week. Time has flown since those years in the 1960's. I answered the phone at "The Library" back in those days and spoke often w/ her children. Our thoughts and prayers are w/ all of you. May God give you strength and comfort in the days ahead.
