“ Me and Mary Yola grew up together, we went all thru school together and graduated together. I spent nights with her many times. I loved her mom Agnes and her dad Tom. They were good people. Mary Yola was a great lady, her personality was contagious, she always made me laugh and I will always remember her laugh. we cried together, we laughed together. Memories I will hold dear to my heart. I will miss you pretty lady. Now you are at peace and where you longed to be. Love you girl Connie Hellard

“ I met Mary with her husband Jr at St Johns baptist church. They sat behind me in church. Jr would always tug on my hair and handed out candy to everyone in church. Such loving and giving people.
