

Mary Kathleen Dailey

April 29, 1926 - May 11, 2014

Mary Kathleen Poindexter Dailey. April 29, 1926 - May 11, 2014.

Kathleen was the daughter of Nell Bledsoe and Howard Downing Poindexter, graduating from Peaks Mill High School in 1944. Kathleen was an accountant with Kentucky Transportation Cabinet, Division of Accounts, retiring after 28 years of service.

After retirement, Kathleen's passion was quilting, and helping to restore this lost art. She was a co-founder of the Central Kentucky Homemakers Quilt Guild, serving as President for one term. She also served as President of the Kentucky Heritage Quilt Society and was a member of the American Quilt Society. Kathleen credits her quilting with helping her get through some difficult times.

Kathleen attended both the Holly Hill and Swallowfield Church of Christ where, along with her late husband, Aubrey, Jr., raised her four children to obey the gospel of Jesus Christ. Kathleen was a faithful Christian, attending church as long as she was physically able. She had many friends in the church and neighborhood who maintained a vigil in her last days.

Kathleen is survived by three children: Richard (Sharon) Dailey, Julie (Michael) Bice and Jim Dailey. She is survived by seven grandchildren:
