“ *I bought you a memorial candle Mom...it will last forever, just like the thought of you in my heart. They say time heals the pain, I say they're wrong. It's hard looking at the clear blue skies sometimes because I know that if there were some clouds, you'd be up there on one...fishing. I love you and think about you constantly. Rest in peace Momma...there is no more pain and everlasting life with our sweet Lord. Good night.

“ *Mom, I miss you more and more each day. I think about you daily and wish you were still here to answer my phone calls. It's lonely without you. I have no one to tell me it's all going to be ok. I wonder constantly if there was anything more the doctors could do? Was there anything else I could do? I pray everyday that I will make you proud. It's so hard to pick up the pieces and keep going but you taught me otherwise. You told me to never quit and never give up, be strong and take care of myself. I love you so much Momma and my heart is broken. Just keep watching over me and help guide me through life. I'll see you again one day, soon.
Love,
Your loving daughter, Kristy Marie*

“ I want to extend my deepest condolences to the friends and family of Mary. I never got a chance to meet her, but heard lots of great stories about her from her daughter Kristy. Anyone who could raise such a wonderful daughter as her must have been a wonderful woman. Kristy--love ya girl...hang in there. Call me if you need anything.

“ Romans 8:16-18

16 For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children. 17 And since we are his children, we are his heirs. In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God's glory. But if we are to share his glory, we must also share his suffering. 18 Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory he will reveal to us later.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.
