

Max B. Thomas

September 8, 1953 - October 17, 2024

Max B. Thomas turned 71 last month before passing away on Oct 17 in Lexington's Albert B. Chandler Hospital with his loving wife, Cathy Thomas, holding his hand. Born in Shelbyville, Max grew up working in tobacco fields and continued taking on seasonal work long after he pulled his way up the state government chain, becoming a computer programmer on many of Kentucky's most valued software systems. He was also an equity trader, a janitor, and a coach for his three kids' many sports teams. Yet his greatest passion was working for Frankfort's Democratic Party registering voters, helping fundraise, and inspiring civic action on a local and national level. But all of his hard work came second to his love for family. For Max, family was everything.

Max is survived by his wife Cathy; children Marvin Thomas, Louisville, Alex Chew (Wellington), Austin, TX and Deana Thomas of Frankfort. He is also survived by his siblings Denise Williams and Paul Thomas of Shelbyville; and Debbie and Linda Thomas of Louisville; as well as sisters-in-laws Rosiland Greene, Charlene Williams (Thorse), Cindy Garrett and Coliss Ferguson of Louisville. He also had a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins across the South and Midwest who loved him.

He was preceded in death by his father Marvin Thomas, mother Eva Shouse, siblings Pat and Darran Thomas (Donna), along with in-laws Nora and A. D. Ferguson of Mt. Sterling.

“ Cathy & Family,

We are keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Our Franklin County KY Democratic Family and Friends are saddened to hear the passing of one totally awesome "Yellow Dog Democrat", Mr. Max Thomas.

Max was a true champion in Franklin County and around Kentucky for the Democratic Party.

Max met Democrats from across Kentucky and everyone knew immediately how strong his Democratic values were.

He'd tell you that he was an introvert, but no one would believe it. Max Thomas loved politics and always enjoyed being around all Democrats far and near.

He worked diligently registering voters,(the most ever in Franklin County) worked very hard to help local and statewide democratic candidates get elected to office.

Max also helped Kentuckians learn about the KYNECT Program(KY Affordable Care Benefits) by setting up in several areas to pass out essential materials.

Max never missed an opportunity to stay involved with democratic politics. When illness came upon Max, he kept his Family, Friends and the Public informed about the policies and all candidates on the his Facebook page.

Max Thomas will truly be missed here on Earth, 🌍 but, we know that God said, "Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant"! Mr. Democrat, Rest In Heaven. 🕊️

“ Cathy, Marvin, Alex, & Deana - I was SO sorry to hear of Max’s death! He was a really fine man, a good husband and father who loved each of you dearly. Max also loved his country, and actively stood up for what he thought was right. He had a tough time with his health issues for the past few years. A dialysis clinic opened up near my house about 2 years ago, and whenever I drive by, I sometimes remember when Max came by the church office right after he’d been told he’d have to undergo dialysis regularly. I remember him sitting there, wearing his hat, processing the sobering news. He mustered up the strength and courage to face the situation head-on, and endured the treatments all these years. I admired him for that, too. Max had a pleasant personality and a caring heart. Conversation was lighthearted and “easy” with him—he was fun to be around. Max will be missed, not just by you, his loving family, but also by many other friends, coworkers, and acquaintances in Frankfort and beyond. Treasure your loving memories of your lives with him, and keep telling the stories! He will remain “alive in your hearts” until you meet him again in heaven. Blessings to all of you as you grieve and honor his life in the coming days. Love to all of you - Naomi Walker

“ I met Max while working on the Obama campaign in 2008. We registered voters together at the old Pic Pac market. Max was a dedicated worker for many causes, rain or shine. One of the most decent people I know. Love Cathy too. I did not know he was ill recently. We will miss you my friend. Maybe God can answer some of those questions now. My deepest sympathies to Cathy and the entire family.
