“ Mike was a close friend of mine for 42 years. We had a bunch of good times ,from the store ,teasing each other and all our friends in there to the dove hunts to the times after the hunts that will live on forever as the funniest moments ever. I will miss you Mikey very much. Only God knows why he chose now to bring you home. Just know you will be missed by many that you befriended and came in contact with through out your life. I love you brother and know that Larae and Coco are happy you are back with them now. God speed to you my friend!!

“ I first met Mike when he worked for Jimmy Gilbert. Always knew Mike to be a fair man & when I'd complain to him about working for state government and the raises they STOLE from us, he'd say, "Tommy, just stay the course. You'll have a retirement one day that I won't have." Just before he sold the store to Christian, I came in and bought a couple of guns and he said, "See, didn't I tell you you'd be better off when you retired?" He was right. He & I talked guns quite a lot and he appraised some guns for me I'd inherited. Would see him at the store in Bagdad quite a bit, too. I know he loved his family and his chocolate Labs, too. Good man that we hate to see go. Godspeed, Mike!

“ Mike was not just a wonderful brother-in-law, he was a friend to us all, (Michael and Kelly Neal and Donna Sandlin). We live a few doors down from his gun store where we would wave to each other and talk frequently. Mike would stop to talk to us on his way home where he diligently worked on his farm, took care of Cocoa(R.I.P.) then Lucy. All of our text exchanges brought laughter and companionship that will be missed dearly. He was a devoted husband to his beloved wife Larae Carol Neal Sloan who he is now joined with. Mike loved his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and proudly talked about them often. We are sending prayers, comfort and love to his family. Our hearts are broken and the only solace we have is that he's now with the love of his life, Larae.
