“ *Mitch was a friend from Waggener days and there are too many stories to tell...
He struggled with many things but never lost the twinkle in his eye and mischievous smile.
My condolences to his mother, sisters, and brothers on his loss.
He was a special friend.*

“ We are so sorry to hear that Mitch has passed away. Mitch and Kenny have been good friends since the sixth grade (1956). It has been two or three years since we last talked to Mitch. We saw him at our 50th class reunion. We will miss our dear friend, but fortunately, we have a lifetime of good memories to call upon. We will miss him, but we will never forget him. Now, Mitch is with God in heaven. When our time comes, hopefully, we will see Mitch again in heaven.

“ Mitch will be missed by me and my children, Jess, Nance Beth and Will. He was so kind to us when Nance and Will's dad, Bill Noonan, died and we all shared some wonderful memories in the years that have passed. He was a brave, kind and good friend to us and we enjoyed his friendship. We are so sorry for your loss.
