“ My greatest memory of Narvilla occurred November 4, 2016 (ironically enough). My daughter and I traveled to Ft. Walton with Narvilla and on this day, I took a chance and called the Florida Department of Parks to inquire about renting a beach wheelchair. Long story short, one was delivered to our condo within 2 hours. The kind gentlemen gently picked Narvilla, and the chair, up and placed it on the more firm sand for me so I could maneuver it more easily. Jennie, Narvy and I walked up and down the beach for miles. We spent almost three hours just strolling along, meeting other beachgoers, looking for treasures and enjoying the warm sun. Jennie would splash water on our legs and Narvilla would giggle like a teenager. I think that was the happiest time we spent together. We shared the spot we loved most with each other and I'll treasure that memory forever.
