“ You guys are in my thoughts and prayers, not only through this difficult time, but always. I was just looking back on some of my memories of Nellie, and couldn't help but smile. Wish I could be there, but I am sending all the love, hugs, thoughts, and prayers this tribute can hold. I attached a poem that always helped to comfort me, and I hope it can send some comfort your way too.

*Love you,
Joy*

*God looked around his Garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.*

*He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
And knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw your path was difficult, he closed your tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.
When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home*

“ Dear Martha, Just wanted to let you know how sorry I am about the death of your beloved mother. I know that she is now in a better place but you will miss her so very much. I am sorry that I was not able to make it to the funeral home for visitation but I am not feeling well and did not want to bring what I have to anyone. You will be in my thoughts and prayers in the weeks and months that pass. Please don't be a stranger and give me a call anytime if you need or want to talk to someone. Love Malinda

“ Dear Martha Jane, Tommy, Alberta, et al. ~

*Read of Nellie's death this morning and am so glad her struggle is over. Bless her heart. Just wanted all of you to know that we're thinking of you, as we do so often. So sorry we can't be at visitation; Buddy is extremely frail, barely mobile, and almost completely deaf. He sends his love, as we all do. He had a special attachment to Nellie throughout their childhood, probably because they were so close in age, and we've heard many hilarious tales about the trouble they managed to get into together. Many good memories . . . hang onto yours. Take care of yourselves ~
We love you - Buddy, Marjorie, Susan & Louis, Steven, Diana, & Natalie*

“ I worked with Nellie in Disability Determinations many years ago. She was a really great person. Always happy.

“ *Mr Bright:
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time.
May God give you strength during this difficult time.
