“ Mamaw welcomed everyone into her home. With loving arms and a strong shoulder.

She was full of wisdom that was beyond all of our years. She was tough as nails, and soft as snuggle.

If you needed a meal. Just come around supper time. She always had more than enough. Once our elders help us grow into mature, productive members of society. It is then out of respect we help them later on.

Mamaw you will forever live on in our hearts!

“ She was a beautiful lady and mother, she raised 8 children by herself, when the youngest was only 6 weeks old. She had a lot of love for her children and Jesus. She will sadly missed from this world , But Jesus has her now and she is out of pain and with Granny and Granddaddy.

LOVE YOU MOMMA AND WILL MISS YOU TERRIBLY
BUT I NOW IN MY HEART YOU ARE HAPPY
