“ We loved Norma very much. She lived life on her terms and dearly lived her family. I remember how she and Mom would laugh and carry on when they got together. She was kind and Steve and I loved her. Sending hugs to Ronnie, Lewis and their families and to Kathy's family and lifting you all up in prayers.

“ Norma is such a wonderful lady. I have so many special memories of her and my parents visiting each other. It was always a great time.

Out of all my mom's friends, Norma has always been my favorite.

She a

told it like it was and I just loved that.

Sending lots of love and hugs and praying for peace and comfort.

“ I loved Cousin Norma. She was a wild woman! After Paul passed, I did her hair for years. I don't doubt for a minute that Normas heaven will have a bowling alley and more fun than the law allows. I'm sure she is having quite the reunion with Paul leading the parade. RIP Norma.. You are loved.
