“ No one can write Pat's obituary...because she lived it. She was so good to me and my son when we lived there in Frankfort over 35 years ago. We lived directly in front of her house. It took me a while to be secure about her sincerity, but it was genuine. a day does not go by that i think of her and Jim and am grateful for every day that i was fortunate to have had her in my life.

“ I had the privilege to receive Pat and Christy as members of First Baptist Church during my tenure as pastor. They were supportive members and she attended when she could. I had the joy of being a guest in the Monie home and presided at their wedding renewal services. I was certainly saddened to hear of her transition but I'm praying for her husband, children, and extended family.

“ Mama, as most of us knew her was a joy, an inspiration, and blessing. She never met a stranger. She never failed to volunteer help where needed... And she always found someone that needed help. (I was one of those people.) She would never forget to help the stranger on the street or the loved one at home. Jim, Christy, Randy, Charlotte, Terry... And all extended family may God give you grant peace through this time. May any tears be should in laughter when reflecting on Mama Pat's past. Teekay and I send our love.
