“ I would like to offer my condolences to the family of Patsy Brown. When a love one dies it deeply hurts. This is why God holds out a wonderful promise to all of mankind at Revelation 21:3, 4. There it says:

"With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: Look! the tent of God is with mankind, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.â€

This scripture has not been fulfilled yet; but, Jehovah God promise that it will be in the near future.

Additionally, the scripture at John 5:28, 29 partially says:

â€Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.â€

What a wonderful hope!

“ Dear Patsy's Family and Friends,
I am truly sorry to learn of Patsy's passing. I worked with her in State Government during the 1980s. My favorite memory of Patsy is the one of her smiling and laughing, giving me encouragement at that time when I was a new mother. She spoke of her children and husband often, and with great love. Certainly the memory of her strong character and care for others in her life will provide much comfort to you in the days ahead. I feel privileged to have known her. I regret I am unable to attend her funeral. In celebration of her life, I share your memories, and in deepest sympathy, I share your sorrow. May Our Lord Jesus' peace and promise comfort you now and in the days ahead.
With deepest sympathy, Angie Scott

“ Tammy, your mother was one of the sweetest people I know. She and I had some good times at the National Guard Conferences and she will be greatly missed. Now she can be at peace, she is with her sidekick and she is without pain. I am going to be out of town and cannot come for visitation and I want you to know that my prayers are with you. It is hard to lose a mother but they will always live in our hearts. I am here if you need someone to talk to. Please call Sandy Moore
