“ I can see her still, standing in the kitchen, serving lunches for everyone during their lunch break. And at Christmas time the giving of gifts to all the children , everyone would bring every child each a gift and it was great fun for all. My daughter , Grace always looked forward to going . Great lady, she will be dearly missed

“ This was a great lady she loved the Lord and her children and family. Our children always called her Granny Munson. They were not her grand children but she never did show any difference in the kids. She will be missed here on earth, Heaven is rejoicing She is Home now.

“ I will for ever remember her kind spirit and sweet smile. I will also remember her white hair and pretty print house dresses. Some times she would walk around the block is another memory. She will be missed. I am thankful for knowing her. She was a blessing.
