“ The Veal Family moved next door to Peggy when I was 11 and she was 12. We soon became friends, and remained so until Forever! Usually, Peggy and I were little angels, but there were Those Times! One time I was going to a Cotillion Dance, and Peggy said she wanted to fix my hair for me. So, she got a bottle of peroxide and poured it all over my hair. My hair turned from strawberry blonde to BRIGHT CARROT ORANGE! The look on my Mother's face was priceless, not to mention the way my date looked when I opened the door! Nevertheless, Peggy was FORBIDDEN to fix my hair anymore!

Then there was the time I asked Peggy to date my boyfriend Harry. I wasn't so into him, so Peggy got him to take her out the next night. I watched out the window with my binoculars, and they were out really late! When he walked her back to the door, they kissed FOREVER! The next day I decided to take Harry back! Thus, somehow I can thank Peggy for my marriage to Harry, and the birth of my wonderful daughter, Marla!

Peggy and I shared so many special memories together! We truly watched each other grow up. We laughed together during the good times, like the births of you three children and all of her grandchildren! She adored you all more than words can say. We cried during the terrible times, but with God's help we all of us made it through! Jenny, Zack, Brent, your Mother and I always said, when we passed it would be like a long vacations from each other, but someday ...we would see each other again!

I am so very disappointed that I was sick and was unable to be there for the funeral. I know I haven't seen you in years, but I do love you, and feel like I know you because your Mom always talked about you with so much love in her heart!

Love, Marsha

“ Jenny, Brent and Zack: You all know that Peggy will always have a special place in my heart. From the time Jenny and Tina spent the night in second grade, Peggy and I shared so many life events. Tina, Brad and I have sweet memories of her that will always be with us. I'm so glad she and I got to see each other this year. I wish I was there to give you a hug. I pray for God to comfort your hearts and give you peace. That's what she would want as well. Much love to you all.

“ I met Peggy when she married our good friend, Chuck Morris. I thought that she was a tall, beautiful woman who we were lucky to have her in our lives and right across the street. As those years passed we shared many happy and fun times in our lives living in the Frankfort Country Club. They moved several times, but we continued shopping together and watching our children grow into adults. Brent, Jenny and Zack were her life and great loves. She was also a wonderful step mother and daughter in-law to the Morris family. Listening to stories about her grandchildren helped me prepare for my own grandson. We continued to see each other after she moved to Florida and me to Texas. Luckily we were both home on holidays. Our last dinner was so fun and we talked by phone or text often. I will never forget your laugh and words of comfort in both our times of need. You've made it home sister and I will see you there one day. Our last words were, "I love you"!
